

“Service To Others Is The Rent You Pay For Your Room Here On Earth”

Muhammad Ali

Each year on Long Island over 70,000 of our neighbors turn to The Salvation Army's Food Assistance Program. In 2010 The Salvation Army is facing a 60% reduction in funding even though demand is extremely high.

THERE IS A SOLUTION ON THE COMMUNITY LEVEL!

We are instituting an advertising campaign that enables this program to be promoted when you place your normal advertising. It also would establish you as a drop off point for food and monetary donations.
